SHIPPING & HANDLING FEES – Shipping cost will be calculated during order processing

Our preferred shipping carriers for mail orders are UPS and FedEx for most orders within the continental U.S. We also allow the option of using the U.S. Postal Service for some distant and rural areas, including to Hawaiian and Alaskan addresses, but this carrier will only be used when necessary and will be used at the customer's risk as USPS is more susceptible to shipping delays. This is especially true during the busy holiday shipping season.

During busy holiday seasons (Mid November through December) exact delivery times are not guaranteed for most services and orders could possibly be susceptible to delays due to increased seasonal shipping volumes. If more time definite delivery during this time is required, it is suggested to expedite delivery service from Ground to 3-Day, 2-Day, or Next Day delivery service. Call for pricing on these services.

Expedited delivery service may be required for delivery to warmer climate areas. This is especially true during summer months. Required expedited delivery service is dependent on current weather forecasts, ground transit length, and the susceptibility of the products that you are shipping are to spoilage.

It is the customer's responsibility to ensure that all billing & shipping addresses are complete and correct with Apt., Unit, and PO Box numbers if applicable. It is also the customer's responsibility to ensure that someone will be available to receive the package at the shipping address when it is delivered or in a reasonable amount of time after it is delivered. If sending to someone else, it may be beneficial to give the recipient a heads up to make sure they are aware that a perishable package is being sent to them so that they can refrigerate the contents as soon as possible upon delivery.

The Pinconning Cheese Company assumes no responsibility for any shipping delays or product damage that may occur during transit that occurs at the shipping carrier's fault. If there is a shipment or delivery issue with your order, we will work on your behalf to try to resolve any issues with the shipment company to the best of our ability to come up with an acceptable solution that is best and fair for all parties involved.

We will choose the most economical and reasonable shipping service option when processing orders to ensure that all orders reach their destination in the best condition possible. Most of the time Ground shipping is the preferred service, if applicable. If expedited 3-Day, 2-Day, or Next Day shipping is recommended, we will contact you or go over this with you when we take your order. We will provide estimated costs for these services when required and upon request.

Upon packaging orders, we may not ship our products as viewed in our gift brochure or on website with the pictured gift containers. For quality assurance, we will repack our products into insulated boxes accompanied with frozen gel packs to help ensure that everything stays nice and fresh upon delivery to the recipient. In summary, you may not receive our cardboard or wooden gift boxes pictured in our advertising. If you desire the gift box container associated with your gift box, please request this when ordering and added shipping charges will be applied if necessary.

*HANDLING/PACKAGING FEES

Insulated packaging and frozen gel packs will be used in most shipments and/or as deemed necessary to ensure that any perishable products stay fresh upon delivery. The cost associated with these materials and service starts at $10 for any order containing perishable goods. This cost can increase depending on if additional ice packs or insulated materials are needed when shipping to warm climate destinations.
